TEXT № 1

Hi Maggie. Your grandparents are arriving this afternoon. I didn't have time to cook a meal or clean the house so I need your help. Please, put the dirty clothes in the bathroom and wash the dishes. Call your aunt and tell her to come and help you. There isn't any juice or Coke in the fridge. Your Granny likes apple juice and your Grandpa prefers orange juice, so please buy both. Your grandfather likes pizza so you can order one from the nearest pizza restaurant. I'll be back at about a quarter to seven in the evening. Kisses. Mum

OK, everybody, listen to me carefully! Yesterday Mrs Johnson and I decided to take you on another trip to London. We're going next Tuesday, that's the nineteenth of October. Last month you enjoyed our visit to the Science Museum. This time we are going to the Natural History Museum. We are going to travel by coach, not by train, as we did last time. Make sure you are at school at nine a.m. We have to be ready to leave by half past nine. We'll be in London about half past twelve and spend the afternoon in the museum. There will be a guided tour and a lot of other activities. Then we're planning to leave London at about six p.m., and we hope we'll be back by nine p.m.
